Hi, I'm Rizky Dwi Budi Astra

WEBSITE DEVELOPER

Welcome to one of my portfolios. this portfolio contains the results of website projects that I've worked on so far, traxonsky.com is a radio website where you can listen to live radio, see music charts that many people are listening to, and read the latest news articles. I developed this website using programming languages that I have mastered such as HTML, CSS, Javascript, PHP, and Mysql assisted with CMS tools in assembling and managing everything. Here's the look and some of the features on this website.
